

DEAR ERIC COLUMN - NOVEMBER

NEW VIRTUAL CRITIQUE PROGRAM

Dear Eric,

Eric, do you have a critique program available for those of us who live far from you?

Elaine in Utah

Elaine, I am so glad you asked that question, because we have recently changed the format of my Virtual Critique program. I have found it to be very effective to do it via Skype or Facebook. The personal interaction between the student and myself is greatly enhanced by this new medium. I have seen some great improvement.

The student will send either real paintings, or images of them, and I point out the strengths and weaknesses in a non- threatening manner. After an evaluation of the work, I suggest an assignment. When the student is ready- and this is up to the student- we schedule another critique followed by an additional assignment. Everybody works at their own pace.

You can find out the details by going to:

ericwiegardt.com,

Click on " workshops" in the banner

Click on "School of Painting Workshops" in the menu

Click on " Virtual Critique"

I hope you consider this opportunity,

Keep your brush wet!

Eric

AWS Gold Medal of Honor Award